Dear Lady Ustinov,

Thank you for your letter concerning the 7 June tribute to the late Sir Peter Ustinov.

I would also like to thank you for allowing me to participate in the funeral service in Geneva in April. It was not only an opportunity to pay tribute to a great man on behalf of UNICEF, but also a privilege for me personally.

I appreciate and share your disappointment that you were not present when we honoured Sir Peter during the Executive Board meeting in New York. Please rest assured that it was completely unintentional that you were not included. Indeed, I very much regret that the UNICEF contacts with the Ustinov family were not as extensive as they should have been.

I have instructed my staff that should there be any future occasion where Sir Peter's contribution to children is featured, to ensure that all members of the Ustinov family are informed, invited and involved as appropriate.

The video we showed at the tribute again reminded everybody of the extraordinary talents, the compassion, the wit and the dedication of Sir Peter to the cause he served so generously for over 30 years. I hope that you enjoyed watching that video and the heartfelt comments by Harry Belafonte.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Carol Bellamy
Executive Director
