

ANNEX II

CF/HST/1985/036/Rev.02/1902

Example of Tables of Contents of interviews: series of interviews with Dr. Charles Egger,

October 1983 - November 1984

CF/HST/1985-036/Rev.02/Add.02

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger*
by John Charnow
UNICEF, New York, 11 October 1983

Table of contents

(i)

	Page
Egger pre-UNICEF background	1
Origins of UNICEF: Rajchman	1
Duration of UNICEF	2
Move to developing countries: Rajchman	3
Aid to Germany: Eliot, Rajchman	4
Emergencies/long-term	4
Milk conservation	4
BCG	5
Training of health workers/pediatricians	5
International Children's Centre	5
Swiss post-war relief efforts	5
Links with UNICEF	6
Egger joins UNICEF	6
UNICEF in Eastern Europe	6
Bulgaria	7
Difficulties: phasing out	7
Al Davidson	9
Maurice Pate	9
Termination of aid	9
Attitudes of delegations	10
European office/Headquarters relations	11
Relations with WHO	12
Medical advisory group in Paris	12
TB/BCG	12
International Children's Centre	12
McCarthyism	12
Egger as head of Paris office	13
Europe in the '50s	13
Start of National Committees: Willie Meyer	13
UNAC: Ording	13
Africa	14
Ralph Bunche: colonial powers	14
Colonial powers	14
West and Central Africa	14

*Charles Egger started his career with UNICEF in August 1948 as Administrative Officer in Bulgaria. A year later he transferred to the Paris office where in 1950 he became Chief of Field Operations and in 1951 Director of European Operations. Later his title was changed to Director Africa, Eastern Mediterranean & European Regional Office and Director Africa & European Regional Office. He became Director of the Delhi office in October 1961, a position he held until October 1967 when he came to Headquarters as Deputy Executive Director (Programmes). He retired at the end of 1981. In January 1983 he returned to UNICEF to serve as Regional Director for the Eastern Mediterranean Region on an interim basis for eight months.

	Page
Palestine refugees	15
UNICEF characteristics in the 1950's	16
Staff	17
Changing requirements	17
In Africa: Marti, Borch	17
Women's activities: Bureau of Social Affairs	17
Learning from experience: basic health services	18
UNICEF flexibility: Board and staff	19
Material aid and other UNICEF inputs	20
Changing emphases	20
Programme control by Headquarters	21
Prior to 1960	21
Changes in the 1960s	21
Decentralization starts	22

0488Q...27 August 1984...Interview II

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger

Conducted by John Charnow

UNICEF, New York, 12 October 1983

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Africa	1
Colonial Powers invitation to UN	1
French territories	1
Health	1
English territories	1
Health	1
Women's activities; community development	2
Missionaries	2
Leprosy	3
Paris office/Colonial Powers	3
Exchange of country experience	4
Portugal/Spain	4
Biafra; Congo	4
Learning from experience	5
Establishing field offices	5
Relationship with WHO	6
Training leaders	6
Bilateral aid	7
Aid geared to training/research	7
Institutes	7
Makere	8
WHO unhappiness	8
ICC and other institutions	9
WHO role	10
Content of training	11
UK office	12
UNICEF staff in Africa	13
Dr. Marti	13
Dr. Lehner	14
Others	14

Field visits	14
Dr. Sinclair-Loutit, WHO Adviser	15
Changing staff perceptions	15
Regional Office/Headquarters relations	15
Allocations for Africa	17
Recent changes in Africa	17
Natural catastrophes	18
Economic problems	18
UNICEF's influence	19
Differences from early days	19
Foundations laid by UNICEF	19
Beginnings of PHC	19
ICC training centre, Senegal	19
Water	20
Mass campaigns/integration	20
Education	21
A brief historical summary	21
Current dilemma	23

0488Q

0507Q...27 August 1984...Interview III

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger

Conducted by John Charnow at UNICEF Headquarters

On 24 October 1983

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Michelmores survey, breakup Paris/Bangkok offices	1
Egger heads India Office	1
New approaches in India	1
Bangkok Board Meeting 1964	2
Board group observation tours, India	3
Support of Headquarters	3
Nutrition, lessons learned in India	3
Relationships with additional Ministries	5
Relations with bilateral aid	6
Cooperation with national institutions	6
Use of national expertise	7
Variety of forms, agency attitudes	8
National TCDC	9
Evolution of relations with States and local units	9
Roots of basic service strategy	10
Involvement of women	10
Integration of health activities	11
Working with NGO's	12
Local training, lessons learned	13
Tatechenko	14
ORS advocate	14
Lost opportunities	14
Family planning	16
Indian position/cautious UNICEF position	16
UNFPA and evolution of UNICEF position	17
Insufficient headquarters support	20
Suggestions for the future	21

0508Q...27 August 1984...Interview IV

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger

Conducted by Jack Charnow

On 25 October 1983 at UNICEF Headquarters

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Milk Conservation	1
The European experience	1
In developing countries	1
The Indian experience	2
Relations with FAO	3
Scope of UNICEF aid	4
In milk conservation	4
In applied nutrition	4
Adaption of Western technology to developing country conditions	5
Problems	5
Applied technology	6
Labouisse visit to India	6
Egger becomes Deputy Executive Director (Programmes)	7
Emphasis on decentralization	7
Reviews in the field	8
Government participation	9
Agency participation	9
Limitations in programme participation	9
From technical approval of projects to broader participation	10
JCHP	10
UNESCO/Changing educational policy	11
ILO/prevocational training	12
FAO	13
Reimbursement of agencies	13
Priorities in collaboration with agencies	14
UNICEF a catalyst	14
Education/UNESCO	14
Nutrition/ACC Subcommittee	15
Local expertise	15

TDC	15
UNDP	16
Rural water & sanitation	16
Science & technology	16
Early child development	16
UNDP, UNFPA, UNICEF Memo of understanding	16
Social development: women, girls, children	17
World bank	17
Bureau of Social Affairs	17
Relations with bilateral aid	19
Planning	21
Reviews & evaluations	22
Knowledge networks/centres	22
UNICEF specialized expertise	22
Urban activities	23
Women's activities	23
Statistic advisers	23
Specialists & generalists	24
Weakness in Programme Division	24

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger
Conducted by Jack Charnow at UNICEF Headquarters
on 26 October 1983

Table of contents

	Page
Relationship headquarters divisions	1
Programme/Supply/Information	1
Reports Office	1
Heyward	1
JCHP	4
Origin	4
Values	4
Birth of PHC Concept	5
Alma Ata	6
Relations with UNDP	7
UNDP representatives	7
UNDP headquarters	7
UNICEF field staff views	8
Regional/country office relations	8
Regional directors	9
Programme reviews in the field	9
Use of expertise	11
Value	11
Insufficient appraisal of results	12
Headquarters specialists	12
Suggestions for future emphases	13
Contacts with UN Missions	14
Hospitality	14
Labouisse	15
Hospitality reimbursement	15
Participation of developing countries in Board	15
Staffing	16
Disproportionally Western	16
Non-political emphasis	17
Compromises in programming	18
Political considerations	18
Cyprus	18
Sudan: water	19
Cuba: central kitchens	19
Noted projects	20

Interview of Charles Egger
Conducted by Jack Charnow
in New York on 30 October and 2 November 1984

Table of contents

(i)

	Page
The UNICEF supply function	1
The early years	1
Relationship to projects	2
Linking programming and supply	2
Local procurement	3
Over-sophisticated supplies	3
Pressure for over-sophistication: countries, professionals, agencies	4
The Copenhagen syndrome	6
Local production	6
Learning from mistakes	7
Transport	7
Insufficient dialogue between programming and supply	8
Country levels of development and supplies	8
Acceleration of technology in developing countries	9
Purchases from developing countries	10
Use of restricted currencies	10
Midwife kits: PHC forerunner	11
Supply guidelists and programme policy	12
Evaluation of supply appropriateness	13
Non-supply assistance: training	14
Opposition in Board	14
Evolution in education	15
Building national capacity	17
Local expertise	17
Studies	17
Encouraging innovation	18
UNICEF TCDC	19
Laxness in providing local costs	20
NGOs	22
Evolution of UNICEF attitudes	22
Africa	23
India	23
Development of partnership	24
Effect of Manila Board session	24
Slowness in coming	25
Selectivity	26
Changes in international NGOs	28
Future perspectives	28
Collaboration with Red Cross	29

	Page
Emergencies	31
Learning from experience	31
Phases of aid	32
Moving rapidly: other agencies	33
UN system	34
Bilateral aid	34
Voluntary agencies	34
Task for UNICEF	35
Non-political UNICEF position	35
Problems	35
Developing operational ability	36
Purchase of local resources	36
Organizing local activities	37
Staffing and administrative organization	38
Relation to regular tasks	38
Finding right people	39
Collaboration with other agencies	39
Board role	40
Fundraising for emergencies	40
Labouisse	41
Grant	41
Donors	42
Too frequent involvement	43
Problems in S-G appeals	44
Kampuchea	45
Prevention measures	45
Long-range vs emergency	47
Emergency manual	49
Biafra	50
Relations with federal government	50
Relations with ICRC	51
Rehabilitation	52
Child nutrition innovation	52
Viet Nam	54
Board role	54
Kozusznik role	55
Headquarters task force	56
Difficulties in agreement on programme: Sandberg, Beaumont, Remy	56
Prefabricated schools: learning from mistakes	58
UNICEF staff	59
A retrospective look	59
Kampuchea	60
Influence of Viet Nam experience	60
Essentials of cooperation	60
Grant role	61
Operational role	61
NGOs	62
Donors/Information Division	62
National Committee need for information	63
Lebanon/Middle East	64
Interpreting mandate flexibility	64
Adding development to reconstruction	65
Palestinian children	67
Restoring water in Beirut	68

Interview with Dr. Charles Egger
Conducted by Jack Charnow
at UNICEF Headquarters 8 November 1984

Table of Contents

	Page
The past and the future	1
CSDR	2
Positive aspects: child-related; fund-raising; clear direction	2
Perceptions of problems	3
Sprung full-blown	3
Time constraints	4
Developing country readiness	4
Technical interventions only	5
Beyond survival	5
Country relationships	7
Going to scale	8
Longer-term aspects	9
A historical perspective	12
Strengthening UNICEF's basic thrust	12
Experienced staff	13
Problems of newer staff	13
Effect on field	14
Priorities problem	14
Performance evaluations	15
Airing of criticisms	15
Income and effective spending	17
Reconciling global advocacy with country action	18
Communication between headquarters and the field	20
Unfulfilled expectations	21
Staff issues	21
Capability and commitment	21
Management attention and role-models	22
Criteria in field placement	22
Staff morale	23
Championing children's causes	25
Publicly or privately	25
Vietnam; Afghanistan; Angola	27
Criteria in speaking up more	28
Children in special situations	30
IYC	30
Interest in children globally	30
Lack of priority in follow-up	30
Polish Committee follow-up	31