THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL

PALAIS DES NATIONS

13 December 1990

Dear Ms. Hepburn,

I should like to express my sincere appreciation for the beautiful drawing you so kindly provided for the first day cover of the United Nations stamp issue commemorating the "Rights of the Child", scheduled to appear on 21 June 1991. The representation of three children looking up at a white dove and embracing their rights is both inspiring and most appropriate as an integral part of the United Nations philatelic programme.

It is indeed an honour to have you as one of the artists who have so generously contributed to the promotion of children's rights throughout the world. Your commitment and tireless enthusiasm are of enormous help to this cause.

Let me add that I was sorry to have missed you - as I was in India at a workshop we held on the "Rights of the Girl Child" - at the JCI luncheon you addressed earlier this week, but I look forward to our next occasion to meet and send you all good wishes for the New Year.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jan Martenson".
